

California Association, FFA Terms and Conditions

Advisors will be expected to agree to the following statement.

Liability Waiver – The California Department of Education & the California Association of FFA is not directly responsible for students, advisors or chaperones attending events sanctioned by the state association. Local school districts and designated advisors/chaperones are responsible for the oversight and management of themselves and their students. Local management also includes securing proper insurance and medical waivers as designated by a chapter's local school board.

Multimedia Recording and Usage Policy – The California Department of Education & The California Association of FFA staff and its designees may capture photos, video and other recordings of participants before, during and after events at events sanctioned by the state association. Please be aware that all recorded media may be used by the California Association of FFA in future print materials, online materials (including FFA websites and official social media accounts) signage, slideshows, podcasts, videos and other uses in physical and digital forms. Attendance at events sanctioned by the state association implies your consent to be photographed, videotaped and otherwise recorded for these purposes.

Food Allergies Disclaimer – Events sanctioned by the California Department of Education & the California Association of FFA are activities that bring thousands of participants together in a number of activities and conferences throughout the state of California, under the supervision of their local school districts via their advisors and chaperones. All individuals with food allergies are responsible for taking necessary precautions to protect their health. Due to the nature and location of various activities, the California Association of FFA cannot provide accommodations for food allergies or be held accountable for issues arising from food allergies.

Financial Liability - Substitutions are allowed. Based on your registration, we commit to legal contracts for meals, materials, and facilities. Therefore, once you register online it is considered final and your chapter is financially liable.
